

We build strength, stability, self-reliance, and shelter.

Amelia Swanson is a dedicated professional in the real estate industry, she is a Closer and Escrow Officer with Mid-State Title & Escrow in Franklin, Tennessee. With a profound passion for ensuring realtors and their clients have an exceptional closing experience, Amelia has become a trusted name in the field.

Amelia's journey in real estate began with land investments in 2003, marking the genesis of her extensive background in the industry. Her profound knowledge is further accentuated by becoming a licensed real estate agent and an impressive 15-year banking career, which equips her with a unique understanding of the financial intricacies that often accompany real estate transactions.

One of the remarkable aspects of Amelia's life is her diverse background. Having lived in various locations within the United States and overseas, she has cultivated a deep appreciation for cultural diversity and a genuine desire to connect with people from all walks of life.

Amelia's commitment to making a positive impact extends beyond her professional life. She has dedicated her time to volunteer for various organizations throughout her lifetime, exemplifying her dedication to serving her community and helping those in need.

Amelia Swanson is more than a seasoned professional; she is a compassionate advocate for both real estate excellence and community well-being.