

Habitat Williamson-Maury Board Member

Nicole Brooks

After being involved with Habitat for Humanity from her teen years into her professional career, Nicole Brooks saw the difference that Habitat is making in our community and around the world. As an intern on our board, she is passionate about continuing to support the organization. Although she recognizes that Habitat for Humanity Williamson-Maury faces many unique struggles and demands, she is an expert at taking those challenges and turning them into positive and rewarding experiences.

Nicole graduated from the University of Evansville in Evansville, Indiana and entered into the banking world 5 years ago.

She is currently a Concierge Banker at Fourth Capital Bank after spending several years at CapStar Bank. Through her career in banking, she has had ample experience in organizing and implementing volunteer opportunities with her team. She understands that in order to understand how an organization functions, you must participate at all different levels. She brings that expertise to our HFHWM board as someone who jumps in at any level from volunteer to leader.

Nicole lives by the quote by Maya Angelou that states, "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." This is a perfect example of our mission at Habitat for Humanity to support and advocate for members of our community by putting God's love into action and bringing people together to not only build homes, but to create hope and friendship. Nicole inspires our team to never forget the big picture and purpose of our organization, as well as the spirit of compassion and togetherness that we strive to establish.

Nicole is a native of the Nashville area. She is an alumna of the Phi Mu organization and active volunteer of the Make-A-Wish America Foundation. She loves to travel and visit new places, as well as meet new people.
